

Discretionary Courtesy Pay Disclosure

It is the policy of Premier Community Credit Union to comply with all applicable laws and regulations and to conduct business in accordance with applicable safety and soundness standards.

The Account Agreement and Disclosures provided to you at the time you opened your account with us controls the duties, obligations and rights of the Depositor, the Authorized Signatories and Premier Community Credit Union with regard to your checking account. The Account Agreement and Disclosures (and all amendments thereto) and its terms shall control any possible conflict, if any, between any provision of this Discretionary Courtesy Pay Disclosure and the Account Agreement and Disclosures. A copy of the Account Agreement and Disclosures is available to you upon request from your Premier Community Credit Union officer.

Courtesy Pay is not a line of credit. However, if you inadvertently overdraw your account, we will have the discretion to pay the overdraft, subject to the limit of your then-existing Courtesy Pay limit and the amount of the overdraft fee. Premier Community Credit Union is not obligated to pay any item presented for payment if your account does not contain sufficient available funds. Any discretionary payment by Premier Community Credit Union of an overdraft check (or item, such as an ATM withdrawal) does not obligate Premier Community Credit Union to pay any other overdraft check (or item), or to provide prior notice of its decision to refuse to pay such check (or item).

Pursuant to Premier Community Credit Union's commitment to always provide you with the best level of service, now and in the future, if you maintain your account in good standing, which includes at least:

- A) Bringing your account to a positive balance within every thirty (30) day period for a minimum period of one (1) business day;
- B) Not being in default on any loan or other obligation to Premier Community Credit Union, and
- C) Not being subject to any legal or administrative order or levy,

Premier Community Credit Union will have the discretion to pay overdrafts within the Courtesy Pay limits, but payment by Premier Community Credit Union is a discretionary courtesy and not a right of the member or an obligation of Premier Community Credit Union. A Courtesy Pay limit of $100 will be given the first business day after account opening to eligible consumer and business accounts. This privilege for consumer and business checking accounts will generally be limited to a maximum of $500 overdraft (negative) balance sixty (60) days after account opening. Of course any and all fees and charges, including without limitation, the non-sufficient funds fees (as set forth in our fee schedules and Account Agreement and Disclosures), will be included as part of this maximum amount. It may be possible that your account will become overdrawn in excess of the Courtesy Pay amount as a result of the assessment of a fee.

The total of the discretionary Courtesy Pay (negative) balance, which includes any and all fees and charges, including all non-sufficient funds/overdraft fees is due and payable upon demand, and Depositor and each Authorized Signatory will continue to be liable, jointly and severally, for all such amounts, as described in the Account Agreement and Disclosures. Our standard Overdraft fee of $30 will be imposed for overdrafts created by checks, ACH, ATM withdrawals, everyday debit card transactions, or by other electronic means.

While Premier Community Credit Union will have the discretion to pay overdrafts on accounts in good standing (as described above), any such payment is a discretionary courtesy, and not a right of the member or an obligation of Premier Community Credit Union, and Premier Community Credit Union in its sole and absolute discretion, can cease paying overdraft at any time without prior notice of reason or cause. If you do not maintain your account in good standing, the Courtesy Pay limit will be removed.

Premier Community Credit Union will not pay overdrafts for ATM or everyday debit card transactions unless Premier Community Credit Union has provided you with the notice required by §1005.17(b) of Regulation E and you have opted in to the payment of these overdrafts. In order to avoid overdrafts due to ATM and everyday debit card transactions, Premier Community Credit Union will place a hold on your account for any ATM or everyday debit card transaction authorized until the transaction settles. ATM and everyday debit card transactions usually settle within two business days after the transaction is authorized. The amount of the hold will be for the amount authorized, or as permitted under applicable payment network rules. Holds on authorized ATM and everyday debit card transactions will be removed prior to settlement where required by applicable payment network rules.

Both consumer and commercial members may discontinue having Courtesy Pay cover future transactions at any time by contacting one of our Representatives.
